

ROAD SCHOLAR

An Exclusive Offer for LearningQUEST Members
Program # 11573 – Best of Color Country National Parks:
Zion, Bryce & Grand Canyon
Sunday, June 2 to Sunday, June 9

Overview:

The Colorado Plateau has created monuments shaped by winter snows, rain and geological upheaval over a span of time eluding human comprehension. Even with an understanding of geology, the multi-hued amphitheaters and hoodoos of Bryce, the cathedral canyons of Zion and the lush North Rim of the Grand Canyon seem improbable — inspiring wonder and defying imagination. Venture into these breathtaking national parks to discover their evolution through geologic time and the natural history and human stories that also color this country.

Program Highlights:

- Hike in Zion National Park's main canyon as a naturalist provides trailside insights.
- Spend a day among hoodoos and other rock formations of Bryce Canyon National Park.
- Witness sunrise and sunset at the Grand Canyon's North Rim and enjoy a meditative hike below or along the rim of the Grand Canyon.

Program Prices:

- Double Occupancy: $1,999
- Single Occupancy: $2,639

Activity Level: Keep the Pace – Walking up to a total of three miles a day on varied terrain. Most hikes are 1/2 to 1 mile with little elevation change. Altitude at Bryce and North Rim of the Grand Canyon range from 8,000 to 9,000 feet.
